

2-year guarantee for CMOS cameras: Free labour and parts renewal.

Guarantee Conditions

Conditions of warranty for CMOS cameras and interfaces: Extract from Vector/C-Cam General Sales Conditions

Cameras and interfaces are guaranteed against defects in material or workmanship for a period of two years following the date of delivery ex-works.

The guarantee includes materials and the fitting of replacement parts. Vector/C-Cam reserve the right to repair or replace the damaged material or reimburse the customer.

The guarantee is restricted solely to the materials supplied by Vector/C-Cam. Any claim for consequential damages shall not be accepted.

Transport and travel costs to and from the place of installation are not included in the guarantee.

No warranty is granted in connection with faults resulting from improper use, normal wear and tear, external influences or use of non-original replacement parts.

The guarantee becomes void if any repair work or other interventions are carried out by persons not belonging to our own service organisation or to one authorised by us.

Our guarantee obligations will be suspended if the purchaser does not meet his or her payment liabilities.

The guarantee shall not be extended by repairs or replacement.
